Challenge Studio Call for Proposals – Burt Swersey Inventor’s Studio Student/Faculty Teams

Do you have an idea that will impact the society and the globe in positive ways? Make life better for others? Do you have a team ready to take on a challenge? With support from the Lemelson Foundation in honor of Professor Burt Swersey, Rensselaer will fund two student/faculty teams who will address an important challenge that will make our world better and more sustainable.

Proposals are due on September 30, 2019.
