Innovative Strategies and Tools to Enrich Knowledge

Research Backed Ways to Show Students You Care

Course Hero has a Faculty Club which offers teaching strategies, guidebooks, and resources shared by educators. In one of the latest articles, "5 Research-Backed Ways to Show Students You Care", the focus is on sharing information on ways to show students you care, guidance on encouraging inclusivity and belonging, and research to back the suggestions. Main topics that are reviewed include:

- Address Students by Name
- Communicate Outside of Class
- Provide Quick and Frequent Feedback
- Create Moments that Matter
- Offer Compassion and Support

This article provides suggestions and strategies on ways to implement the various concepts above. Be sure to review the full article.
