We are happy to announce the 2018 winners of the TLC Seed project proposals. The grants are in partnership with funding from the Teaching and Learning Collaboratory, the School of Engineering, and the School of Science.

Dr. James E. Young
The Blended Collaborative Classroom Approach to Teaching MANE 4080

Dr. Ravishankar Sundararaman, Dr. Chaitanya Ullal, Dr. Yunfeng Shi, and Dr. Dan Lewis
Immersive experiments in the engineering classroom using Augmented Reality applications

Dr. Gerald Korenowski, Dr. Alex Ma, Dr. Bruce Piper, and Dr. Peter Persans
On-Line Mentoring for First Year and Beyond STEM Students

Dr. Mohammed Alnaggar, Dr. Victoria Bennett, and Dr. Omar El-Shafee
Revolutionizing civil engineers introduction to the design process through immersive closed loop analysis, prototyping and testing

Dr. Jason Kuruzovich and Dr. Dan Lewis
DATA@RENSSELAER: Ensuring the Success of Data Across the Curriculum

Visit the UGED website seed project announcement for a summary of each of the projects.